If this world were perfect ...

If this was a perfect world and you could have any position at the Second Street Bistro, Murray Bar or Gil's Goods, what would it be? How many hours a week would you work?

Please take a few minutes to answer these questions

The Murray Bar, Gil's Goods and Second Street Bistro are all high volume businesses with long work days that can be filled with stress. What makes you believe that you can excel and perform well under these working conditions?

We are a very service oriented business. What do you think good service means?

Describe a time when you were treated poorly as a customer. How would you have handled the situation if you were in the other person's shoes?

If you have ever been a guest at any of our locations or a party we were affiliated with, please explain what you like best about this experience.

What experience or knowledge do you expect to gain from your employment with us?

When we check your references, what do you think they will name as your greatest strength?
Your greatest weakness?

As a staff member, what do you expect from the owners, managers and shift leads?

Agreement – please read carefully

I hereby affirm that the information provided on this application (and accompanying résumé) is true to the best of my knowledge. I also agree that falsifying information or significant omissions may disqualify me from further consideration for employment and may be considered justification for dismissal if discovered at a later date.

I understand that my employment can be terminated with or without cause for the first 6 months of employment, as I am not hired for my position until 6 months has expired. During the first six months, I am trying out for a position.
